

CrossCheck Compliance LLC Added to Kroll Bond Rating Agency's (KBRA) List of Approved Third-Party Review Firms

CHICAGO, IL – January 13, 2020 - CrossCheck Compliance LLC (CrossCheck), a leading provider of regulatory compliance and due diligence services, announced today that the firm has been reviewed and added to the Kroll Bond Rating Agency's (KBRA) published list of accepted third-party review firms whose review diligence grading, results, and reports conform to KBRA's US RMBS Rating Methodology.

KBRA is a highly respected global bond rating agency whose mission is to set a standard for excellence and integrity. Established in 2010, KBRA set forth an effort to restore trust in credit ratings by creating new standards for assessing risk and by offering accurate and transparent ratings. The agency is registered as a Nationally Recognized Statistical Rating Organization by the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission.

"We are pleased that Kroll has recognized our capabilities as a third-party due diligence provider for residential mortgage-backed securities rated by the agency", said Mike Forester, managing director. Forester added, "Since 2008, CrossCheck has been providing loan review and due diligence services to clients nationwide. Our due diligence expertise combines highly experienced underwriters with a deep foundation in compliance and audit, resulting in review services that go well beyond even today's enhanced requirements."
